The Recent Display of a Rebel Flag at Rome, Georgia—Letter from Gen Thomas' Headquarters

The following letter has been addressed to the Mayor of Rome, Georgia, by order of Major General Thomas:

HEADQUARTERS DEPARTMENT OF TENNESSEE, }
LOUISVILLE, (Ky.,) February 9, 1867. }

Charles H. Smith, Mayor of the City of Rome, Georgia and others—Gentlemen: The Major General commanding the Department directs me to acknowledge the receipt of your communication of the 25th of January addressed to Brevet Major General Davis Tillson, commanding the sub District of Georgia, giving a statement of facts and circumstances which caused the arrest of certain citizens of Rome, Georgia for being concerned in the display of the flag of the late Southern Confederacy in that city, and asking that justice may be done and the prisoners released.

In your letter you state no disrespect was intended to the United States Government by the exhibition of the Confederate flag, and that the persons who displayed it have accepted in good faith the present status of affairs, and do acknowledge the jurisdiction of the United States Government etc. If that is the case it can only be supposed, presuming that they possess ordinary intelligence, that they misunderstood the present status of affairs, which is, that the rebellion has been decided to be a huge crime embodying all the crimes of the decalogue, and that it has been conquered and disarmed, and that its very name and emblems are hateful to the people of the United States; and he must be indeed obtuse who expects without offense, to parade before the eyes of loyal people that which they execrate, and their abhorrence of which they have expressed in the most emphatic language in which it is possible for a great nation to utter its sentiments. It is pretended by certain newspapers that because no order has been issued from these headquarters that the flag of the Confederacy was not to see the light the citizens were not warned that it would be a treasonable act. This excuse is too puerile to answer, and unworthy of a schoolboy even. The young men arrested, as well as other citizens of the South, know well enough what is right and what is wrong in such matters, without waiting to be guided by orders especially naming and prohibiting displays honoring treason, and of course contemning loyalty. Were they so stupid as not to possess such innate sense of propriety, the order from these headquarters forbidding rebel glorification over the remains of the rebel Brigadier General Hanson should have been a sufficient warning that such performance would not be tolerated.

The sole cause of this and similar offenses lies in the fact that certain citizens of Rome, and a portion of the people of the States lately in rebellion, do not and have not accepted the situation, and that is, that the late civil war was a rebellion, and history will so record it. Those engaged in it are and will be pronounced rebels; rebellion implies treason, and treason is a crime, and a heinous one, too, and deserving of punishment; and that traitors have not been punished, is owing to the magnanimity of the conquerors.

With too many of the people of the South the late civil war is called a revolution, rebels are called "Confederates," loyalists to the whole country are called damned Yankees and traitors, and over the whole crime, with its accursed record of slaughtered heroes, patriots murdered because of their true hearted love of country, widowed wives and orphaned children, and prisoners of war slain amid such horrors as find no parallel in the history of the world, they are trying to throw the gloss of respectability, and thrusting with contumely and derision from their society the men and women who would not join hands with them in the work of ruining their country. Everywhere in the States lately in rebellion treason is respectable and loyalty odious. This the people of the United States who ended the rebellion and saved the country, will not permit, and all attempts to maintain this unnatural order of things will be met by decided disapproval. As, however, it is pretended by the friends of the citizens arrested that they were innocent as not to know that it was wrong for paroled prisoners and unpunished traitors to glory in their shame and flaunt the symbol of their crime in the face of the country, they will be released from confinement, with the understanding that no act of treason will be passed unnoticed when detected, and may they and others who think like them profit by the lessons they have received.

WILLIAM D. WHIPPLE.

A UNION MARTYR.—The Nashville Press and Times of February 6th has the following:

The editor of the Clarksburg (West Virginia) Telegraph, and old citizen of Tennessee, publishes a very affecting letter from poor Ryan, who was brutally murdered at Triune recently. The letter was written just before his terrible death. The Telegraph says:

His murder was one of the most willful, wanton and cruel known in the annals of crime. Alas, poor George! We knew him long and well. A more generous heart than he possessed never beat in the bosom of a man. He fell a martyr to the cause of freedom, of which he had ever been a true and unflinching votary. We have in our possession a letter written by Ryan to three members of Congress from Tennessee the day before his untimely death, which shows the animus of the reconstructed in certain portions of Tennessee. We have also a private letter which shows that Ryan's murder was a premeditated affair, concocted by the rebels in the vicinity of Triune. Ryan, the day previous to his death, wrote to his members of Congress for the purpose of informing them of the state of affairs in his State. We give a few extracts from his letter. He sets out as follows:

"Gentlemen: I address you for the purpose of giving you a few plain facts in relation to affairs in this part of the State, which are anything but flattering. The rebels grow worse and worse every day. In Marshal county, in this State, the Union men are not permitted to wear the blue clothes which the soldiers wore. The rebels curse the Yankees and say that no Yankee costume shall be worn in that region. I do not ask you to rely upon my unsupported word in regard to this matter, but if you will take the trouble to write to any loyal man in Marshall county, he will fully corroborate what I have stated. In Triune we live in Pandemonium, encompassed by devils. In short, if things do not change, and that speedily, the loyal population will have to abandon the country. The rebels murder Union men and rob them of their property, and the civil authorities do not pretend to take cognizance of it. Two weeks ago Robert Sanford, an aged gentleman, had his house entered and robbed by five rebels—all of whom he can identify—of $2,000. These men are now residing in the neighborhood but it would be as much as Sanford's life is worth to attempt a prosecution. The state of affairs here is terrible. Loyal men, both white and black are persecuted in every conceivable shape, and if they don't get assistance from the army they will all eventually be murdered and the rebel perpetrators go unwhipt of justice."

SINGULAR INDIAN TRADITION.—Among the Seminole Indians there is a singular tradition regarding the white man's origin and superiority. They say that when the Great Spirit made the earth, he also made three men, all of whom were fair complexioned, and that, after making them, he led them to the margin of a small lake and bade them leap in and wash. One obeyed, and came out of the water purer and fairer than before; the second hesitated a moment, during which the water agitated by the first, had become muddied, and when he bathed he came out copper colored; the third did not leap until the water became black with mud, and he came out with its own color. The Great Spirit laid before them three packages and out of pity for his misfortune gave the black man the first choice. He took hold of each of the packages and having felt the weight chose the heavier; the copper colored man then chose the next heaviest, leaving the white man the lightest. When the packages were opened, the first was found to contain hoes, spades, and all the implements of labor; the second unwrapped hunting, fishing, and warlike apparatus; the third gave the white man pens, ink, and paper, the engines of the mind—the means of mutual, mental improvement, the social link of humanity, the foundation of the white man's superiority.

A picture in a late number of Punch represents a fashionable young couple, the husband searching vigorously in his waistcoat pockets. The wife inquires, "Have you lost your watch, love?" and he replies: "No, dear, 'twas a new bonnet I had for you somewhere."

(DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.)

DATES TO MARCH 28.

Congressional.

NEW YORK, March 27.—In the Senate, Thayer of Nebraska, read a telegram from the general manager of the Union Pacific Railroad stating that to the west of Omaha the road is progressing rapidly and will be pushed two miles a day for the next ten days.

WASHINGTON, March 27.—In the Senate a joint resolution to transfer $50,000 from the Freedmen's Bureau to the Agricultural Bureau to purchase seeds for the citizens of the South. Passed.

Henderson, of Missouri, from the Finance Committee, reported a bill to guarantee Louisiana $6,000,000 to construct levees. Ordered printed.

Thayer, of Nebraska, from the Committee on Indian Affairs, reported a bill to prohibit the removal of tribes, or the expenditures of Indian Funds without a special provision of law or treaty. The bill passed.

The bill for the payment of the accounts of line officers who were prevented from making monthly returns of the property of prisons or hospitals was amended so that the Auditor must be satisfied by an affidavit that the officers were unable to make monthly reports.

Morrill, of Vermont, from the Committee of Appropriations reported a deficiency bill for sale of the Contingent Fund. The House amendment was agreed to.

Henderson, of Missouri, moved an amendment appropriating $61,000 for expenses of the Indian delegation in Washington.

Sherman, of Ohio, offered an amendment providing that the President or Secretary of War should not make treaties with Indians until an express appropriation be made. Adopted. Other amendments were made and the bill passed.

Trumbull, of Illinois, from the Judiciary Committee, submitted a report stating that no evidence implicating Doolittle or Patterson in the Custom House frauds, had been elicited. Conkling, of New York offered a minority report clearing the Senators, but inculpating Collector Smythe. Johnson, of Maryland, said the Committee was unanimous in maintaining the entire innocence of Doolittle and Patterson. Pending the consideration of these reports the Senate went into executive session and then adjourned.

In the House a bill incorporating the Lincoln monument association passed.

A resolution directing the Secretary of War to present Gen. Simpson's report of a tour of inspection of the Pacific coast was offered by Stevens of Pennsylvania. Passed.

A resolution providing for the re-appointment of the Select Committee on the Southern railroads was adopted.

Boutwell, of Massachusetts, from Judiciary Committee, reported the Senate amendment to the House resolution respecting the claims of certain Northern creditors. The amendments were tabled and thus the bill was defeated.

The Senate resolution in regard to adjournment was taken up.

Schenck, of Ohio, moved to amend by modifying the graduated adjournment by providing for intermediate steps on the first Wednesday of June and September.

Schenck and Logan spoke in favor of the amendment and it was agreed to by 75 to 51.

Banks, from the committee on Foreign Affairs, reported a joint resolution declaring that the people of the United States cannot regard the proposed Confederation of the Provinces on the Northern frontier without extreme solicitude. A confederation of States extending from ocean to ocean, without consulting the people of these Provinces, founded on monarchical principles, cannot be considered otherwise than as a contravention of the traditions and constantly declared principles of this Government, endangering most important interests and tend to increase and perpetuate embarrassments which the two governments were already discussing. Passed without a division.

Mr Banks also offered a resolution declaring that the House extends sympathy to the people of Ireland and Candia, and to all just efforts to maintain the independence of states, elevate the people and extend and perpetuate the principles of liberty.

Mr Robinson of Ill., introduced a resolution recognizing the belligerent rights of Ireland.

Mr Washburne of Ill., offered an additional section declaring that, while sympathizing with the people of Ireland this House believed the present Fenian movement must prove inoperative, and that any encouragement by resolution, unaccompanied by force would only result in involving brave and enthusiastic Irishmen in the difficulty from which their brethren wish to extricate them.

Mr Banks said these resolutions had been before the committee and had been rejected, as it was not deemed a matter with which they should interfere.

Messrs Wood of N. Y., and Eldridge of Wis., opposed the amendment, and it was rejected by a vote of 10 to 127.

The House refused to suspend the rules to consider the Senate bill to reimburse Ohio and Indiana for money spent in repelling Morgan's raid.

A motion to adjourn having been suggested, the Speaker, in reply to a question, said he would not declare the House adjourned at noon to-morrow. No conclusive action had been taken on the Senate amendment of the deficiency bill for the contingent fund.

The House non-concurred in the appointment of a committee of conference on the Senate amendment to the resolution to pay army officers who were unable to furnish monthly reports. Adjourned.

In the Clark-Reese case this morning, Mr Campbell waived an opening, and Mr McCallister opened on behalf of Reese. He alluded to the fact of the plaintiff being a woman, and the sympathy which she received on that account. He stated that the defence was two-fold. They denied the promise of marriage, they denied the engagement. True, she swears to the promise but this is not the first time that an adventurous female comes into court and swears to large damages. We have seen such cases frequently. Unless the case is founded on truth and reality, it is a misfortune to the community. He claimed that she exhibited no wounded affections or blighted sensibilities—that she was an unchaste woman, and the case should be thrown out of Court. He trusted they would not send her forth as a pattern of the virtue and chastity of the city.

The argument of Mr McCallister occupied the majority of the day, and at half past two, Judge Campbell, plaintiff's counsel desired that the testimony of both parties should be weighed together, and which ever way the scales went so to render their verdict. He proposed to show that Reese had perjured himself on every material point to which he had testified after his argument. The Court adjourned at 4½ P. M.

No arrivals.

THE DRESS IN THE BLACK CROOK.—A New York correspondent of the Philadelphia Index gives the following account of the dress of the "ladies" in the celebrated play of the Black Crook, which has had such a famous run in New York. He says:

The ballet troupe consists of better looking young ladies than the ordinary run of such troupes, and it is astonishing to see what a degree of perfection they have reduced the practice of economy in dress. If Mrs. Eve could find herself at Niblo's, I think that she would feel perfectly at home, and Adam would not think of blushing at all on account of his scantily supplied wardrobe. I don't know exactly how to describe the costume, but it reminds me very much of pictures that I used to see in Mitchell's geography when I was at school, of "native Hottentots." It is a mighty convenient costume for dancing. You can't tread on her skirts to save your life, and there is no danger of being tripped up by crinoline as you go round in the German. No collars or cuffs to be washed, no sleeves to be ripped; in short it is so close to nothing that you are a long time finding out the difference, and if you don't like my description, just come on, buy two tickets, and I will carry you to see it.

The Pall Mall Gazette says that some idea of the value of land in the heart of London may be gathered from an incidental statement made by P. N. Laurie, Chairman of the Union Bank. The city corporation, having determined to widen Mansion House street from the bottom of the Poultry, have taken possession of the frontage of the buildings which the Union bank was about to erect at that spot. For this little strip of ground, measuring fifteen feet, the corporation had to pay $43,000.

It is hoped they will like one another when they become acquainted.

What Grant Says of the South

[Correspondence of the Troy Times.]

WASHINGTON, February 18, 1867.

We paid our respects to Gen. Grant at his headquarters on Saturday. We found him hard at work, but cordial as usual in receiving his friends. We had last met him at City Point just before the grand and decisive movement that crushed the rebellion. Then he appeared careworn and almost prostrate by his great labors. Now he gives evidence of an easier life and less exacting duties. He is, however, the same calm, modest, eminently sensible and well disposed man whose military combinations broke the back of rebellion and brought the traitors to a surrender. He conversed freely upon the condition of the country, and there is no attempt at concealment of his views. The questions put to him and his answers were substantially as follows:

Q.—The rebellion was put down by the strong arm of military power under your direction, and surely the work was well done. Now the question is, what policy shall be pursued for the reorganization of the late rebel States?

A.—No, the work is not all done. The fighting is finished, but the very important work of reconstruction is yet to be completed. I think if the Southern States had accepted the Amendment instead of rejecting it so hastily they would have been admitted by Congress in December, but now I think they will have to take the Amendment and manhood suffrage besides. Congress will insist upon this.

Q.—How are affairs at the South, General? Is it true that in Texas and many other sections no adequate protection is given to Union men?

A.—It is true that in a large portion of Texas a Union man is not safe beyond the limits of military protection. In and about Galveston a better state of things exists and the majority of the people, I have no doubt, would be glad to have the law enforced. In many other sections of the South loyal men have no proper security for life and property unless they are so located as to be taken care of by the military. The civil Courts fail to punish offenses against Union citizens, white and black. And as for that matter, they were always remiss. I am told that no murderer who had held what is called a respectable position before he committed the crime was ever hung or otherwise punished in the State of Virginia, and I believe the same is true of most, if not all, the late rebel States.

Q.—You say, General, the Civil Courts have failed to protect Unionists at the South. Well, are not the so called State Governments there the greatest of all failures?

A.—That is a political question for Congress to decide. I only give facts and others may construe them as they please. I believe that large numbers at the South would be glad to have the laws enforced impartially, in some parts this is the sentiment of the majority. But the trouble is, they are overborne by the lawless element, and cannot enforce justice.

Q.—Well, in any event there can be no more fighting?

A.—Oh, no, unless Brooks and Wood and the Copperhead get up their threatened war, and there is some doubt, I think, whether they will ... take to carry out their threats.

One of our party, Mr. ... Greene, of Troy, who is on his way to Augusta, Georgia, made the inquiry whether a Union man is perfectly safe travelling South.

A.—Oh, yes, perfectly safe. There is no danger at all on the regular lines of travel. But then if you should stop and get into angry political discussions, there would be danger in some places, no doubt. In that case shooting would pass off as justifiable homicide, if the murderer was arrested at all.

After passing compliments, etc., we bade the General good day, all our party being highly pleased with the interview and feeling strengthened in our conviction that U. S. Grant is not only fit to be General, but eminently fit to hold the more exalted position of President of the United States, to which a loyal people will call him.

Run of the "Colorado"

On the first day of January 1867—a day that will long be remembered on the slopes of the Pacific coast as the inauguration of an effluent link between this country and the East—we left San Francisco on the Pacific Mail Steamship Company's splendid steamer Colorado. At noon the lashings were cast off and we moved from the wharf amid the deafening cheers of a crowded multitude. Passing down the bay we were saluted and returned the salutes of several steamers and war vessels, and as the echoes of our last guns died away over the glacis of Forts Sumner and Alcatraz, we passed through the portals of the Golden Gate and stretched away for the broad Pacific.

Our passengers were about twenty in number, made up of the usual quota of mercantile agents, also the agents for the Company at the different points, newspaper reporters, a small sprinkling of ladies, and Uncle Sam's mail agent, Colonel Currie. No person could be better fitted for this service, which requires an honorary performance of its many obligations and no favor. Colonel Currie was formerly a ... captain in the British service, but came to America at the commencement of the rebellion and entered the Federal service, where he honorably distinguished himself, and rose to his present rank. Having obtained the post of mail agent ... his services. Of course the opposition in America, everybody has an opposition, asserted out that this was a "my policy" appointment.

After leaving the land, the weather at first fine and clear, merged into a dense fog, which precluded observations of the sun, ... being taken for a few days, when it lashed ... up into a fierce gale from the northwest, a series of which passage to Yokohama, especially on the 15th; the sea was fearfully high, ... experienced nowhere but in the North Pacific.

Through this sea, driving ... numerable hailstorms, without groan, complaint or creak, in fact as steady as a Church march, the Colorado. On nearing the coasts of the Asiatic Isles the weather began to moderate, and on the morning of the 24th, after surmounting the largest of the Pacific ocean, we ran alongside the ... in Kanagawa bay, passing the French frigate Guerriere, whose band played the "Star Spangled Banner." We were visited in Yokohama by several high officials of the Japanese Government, and had it not been for our short stay we might have had a pleasant time on shore. The passage to Hongkong was a very quick one, but uninteresting, with the exception of a burning mountain, and a few steamers passed at sea.

As far as accommodations go, those of the Colorado, although the first description, are better adapted to residents of America or Europe rather than those of Asia. Here every person takes his daily bath. Only fancy one hundred and fifty old residents in India bound to San Francisco all wanting a bath in the morning, and all waiting their turn to get into the one solitary bath that this steamer contains, with the privilege of paying a waiter fifty cents for getting it ready. Another great abuse is that there is no light table drink supplied by the company, which our old P. & O. Co. are very liberal of, but on board the Colorado, such is sold at exorbitant rates. Verily, without these and a few other abuses are altered by the Pacific Mail Steamship Company, the P. & O. will get a long start in the competitive battle.

A REMARKABLE TREE.—Dr. Stanley L. Haynes, in a short pamphlet entitled "A Ramble in the New Zealand Bush," tells the following remarkable story:

"The pata tree is said to have a most remarkable mode of commencing its existence. The young plant takes root in the head of a caterpillar, which buries itself before it dies (or is killed by its strange parasite,) and so enables the young plant to obtain a legitimate and radical nourishment from the soil. Dr. Haynes possesses four specimens of this lusus naturæ, in three of them the stem grows from the top of the caterpillar's head, in one of them two stems arise from the head. The caterpillars are three inches long, half an inch in diameter, and are quite dry and brown, without indications of having been at all decomposed. On the contrary, the true and false feet, the eyes and mouth, are well preserved."

Two wills have recently been admitted, disposing of between four and five million dollars. They are the wills of two brothers, named Ewing, of Fort Wayne, Indiana.

FRIDAY MORNING, MARCH 29 1867.

Indian Treaties.

There is an evident disposition in Congress to adopt a more rational mode of dealing with the Indians than has heretofore been pursued. Everybody knows that the treaty system which has so long been in vogue, is utterly inadequate to produce the results expected to be attained by it. Congress has provided some recent legislation which is calculated to stop, at least for the present, a proceeding so unsatisfactory and so barren of good results. Senator Sherman not long since remarked in debate in the Senate that the whole system of making treaties with the Indian tribes is a farce which should be abolished without delay. The same Senator has succeeded in getting an act passed directing that no more treaties be made with the Indians until the same are authorized by Congress and appropriations made therefor. Heretofore every petty tribe has been dealt with as an independent nation, and the Government instead of asserting its superiority, has treated with these bands as if they were on the same footing with itself, and as if, like civilized nations, they recognized the binding force of treaty obligations. The practice of this system with the docile tribes is not, it is true, quite so apparent a humbug as to adhere to it in dealing with the hostile bands that roam at large over the country, committing the worst acts of violence. These savage tribes have been accustomed to profess friendship or engage in hostilities as their inclination or supposed interest might dictate, and to change from one condition to the other with equal facility and whenever they chose. Whenever it has suited them to be friendly they have professed a willingness to treat, and as soon as the presents and rewards which they always stipulate for have been received, and the whites whom they wish to plunder and kill beguiled into false security, another outbreak has invariably occurred. The habit of making treaties with them and paying a bonus for their good behavior, is only a premium offered to their cupidity; and we are glad to learn that the military expeditions which are to be sent out on the plains this year are going to fight and not "treat" with savages who recognize none of the responsibilities which civilized people attach to their solemn agreements.

The "organ" has the audacity to deny that it is a "ratting" establishment, though it avoids any allusion to our statement that it was the first newspaper in Portland to cut down the long established rates for printers' work. It says it pays for composition sixty cents per thousand ems, which is ten cents more than the rates adopted by the San Francisco "Printers' Association." The printer who "set up" this statement knew that the editor who sent him the copy penned an intentional falsehood. The rates of the "Printers' Union" of San Francisco are seventy-five cents per thousand, as every printer knows. These were the rates always paid in Portland until the editor of the "organ" went one day to his printers and told them that they must thereafter work for sixty cents or receive their discharge. There may be a few printers in San Francisco who work for less than seventy-five cents, but they do so because the same game was played with them by their employers that the Herald practiced on those who do its work. Beriah Brown is himself a printer, and never was anything but a "rat" in his life. A good many years ago he bid one cent on a contract for State printing in Wisconsin and got the contract. In due time he came before the Legislature with a "relief bill" and urged it with hungry importunity for several years. The newspaper he published in San Francisco was a disreputable concern, and never paid full rates for work. The prejudice which arose against it from this reason was one of the causes of its subsequent demolition. It is doubtful whether the office would have been destroyed had it possessed a character for respectability. And now this old "rat" comes up here, puts on knowing looks, affects great wisdom and thinks nobody can catch him!

Kentucky loyalty is about as promising now as it was in the palmy days of the Confederacy. That State sent Breckinridge to assist the rebellion, and as he has not yet found the "rights" he hazarded so much in searching for, she is anxious to get him back and make provision for him at home. A correspondent of the Louisville Courier, in describing the scene at the Democratic Convention in Ballard county in that State when it was proposed to instruct their delegates to vote for Breckinridge for Governor, says: "You should have seen the wild enthusiasm created. Shouts went up from all parts of the court house, although no one had thought or dreamed of such a thing. Col. Turner argued the adoption of the resolution in a brief speech. He said we must look closely to the qualifications of men we put in high places of trust; that Gen. Breckinridge had been tried, he had occupied the highest positions, civil and military, and had proven himself a statesman above all others in the affections of the people of Kentucky."

When Mayor Holmes was installed in his present position he took occasion to promise in substance that he would be sparing of his vetoes, as the Council would know better than himself what measures would be beneficial to the city. This was when the ordinance repealing the anti-hurdy-gurdy act was under consideration, and was equivalent to a promise by the Mayor that that ordinance should have his approval. But he has since changed his mind about the "high consideration and respect" that he thought was due to the Council, and accordingly has recently exercised his veto power no less than six times. His Honor is evidently an ambitious imitator of A. Johnson, and the "humble individual" will have to bestir himself if he would have his vetoes outnumber those of our self-important Mayor.

A few days ago the learned editor of the Copperhead organ of Portland, stated that he could "call to mind a decision of the Supreme Court involving the question whether National Bank stock, based upon Government bonds was taxable; and that decision was in the affirmative." We challenged the "organ" to produce this decision or cite the place where it is reported, but it has not yet done so. Old Ichabod Crane could "call it to mind" only last week, has he forgotten it already? But we must be charitable. At his time of life (such a life as his has been) the faculties are liable to fail suddenly and altogether.

The organ of the Democratic Council of Portland says that the OREGONIAN has been repudiated by the "respectable portion of its own party." The idea of the OREGONIAN being repudiated by two such nobodies as Rosenbaum and Fechheimer, and of their claiming to speak in this matter for the Union party of Portland and of the State, is ludicrous enough, if not quite as modest as it should be.

The Mayor's organ denies that any measure has been adopted by the City Council upon a party test. As if the election of the Mayor himself were not a measure of this kind, and as if a Council that would do this would hesitate at any other measure that it might deem advantageous to the Copperheads.

The Copperheads are now vigorously defending Doolittle. They have discovered that he is a man of strict integrity and unstained virtue. A year and a half ago he was one of the Senators whom the Copperheads accused of all the crimes in the knave's calendar.

L. M. Belknap, of Louisville, Kentucky, donated 1,000 loaves of bread to the poor of that city.

JEFFERSON AND THE SUPREME COURT.—Mr Jefferson should be a Democratic authority, and it is known that his opinion of the Supreme Court was anything but favorable to that eminent tribunal. When Burr was tried for treason Jefferson made every effort to have him convicted, and complained bitterly because Chief Justice Marshall refused to strain the law of treason to a dangerous extent to accomplish this object. It was Jefferson's opinion, to quote his own words, "that suspicion on probable grounds was sufficient cause to commit a person for trial for treason, allowing time to collect witnesses for the trial." The Court held that this was not law, and the President in view of this ruling remarked that "it was unfortunate that federalism was still predominant in our judiciary department, which was consequently in opposition to his legislative and executive branches and was able to defeat their measures very often." And when Burr was acquitted President Jefferson expressed himself on the subject with still more warmth. He said that "the scenes which had been acted at Richmond were such as had never before been exhibited in any country where all regard for public character had not yet been thrown off. They were equivalent to a proclamation of impunity to every traitorous combination that might be formed, but they would produce an amendment to the Constitution which, keeping the judges independent of the Executive, would not leave them so of the nation." Is not an amendment of this sort needed now? The Supreme Court stands in opposition to the legislative branch of the Government, and if a man who was the choice of the people, instead of an accidental incumbent, were in the Presidential chair, the Court would, as in 1807, be opposed both to the executive and legislative branches. This state of things will actually happen in 1869. Much has been said about reorganizing the Supreme Court, and as above shown we have a great Democratic authority in favor of doing it immediately, and in such a way as "will not leave it independent of the nation."

Now that we think of it we must in justice to Mayor Holmes state he has had a record in favor of "retrenchment" for several years. So very economical has he been that the city has experienced the greatest difficulty in getting its taxes out of him.

FROM MONTANA.

The Helena Post of March 5th has the following:

The Hawkeye mill (Postlewaite's) made another seven days' run, and cleaned up on Sunday morning 362¼ ounces of splendid amalgam, valued at $6,525 in gold, or $8,156 25 in greenbacks. This is the best run ever made in Madison county. The ore was taken from the discovery claim on the Kearsarge lode.

Weston's train left yesterday for Salmon river loaded with goods, and Judge Bond will be off in a few days for the same place.

One of the severest snow storms of the season visited us last week. It commenced early on the morning of the 28th ult., and lasted all day, falling with a steady persistence more characteristic of away "down East," than is usual in this blustering, hyperborean region. It covered the ground to the depth of fifteen inches or more, but as yet has caused no delay to the various coaches running in and out of our city.

The new Eagle Creek gulch they say prospects very well. Between fifteen and twenty shafts have been sunk in the gulch up to the present time, as we learn from a gentleman just in from there, with flattering results. It is from fifteen to twenty feet to the bed rock, and the pay dirt is from three to five feet deep, which prospects as high as $2 50 to the pan.

A little altercation took place on the street the other morning, between an editor and a gentleman with whom a controversy had taken place in the papers. We are credibly informed that the editor was armed with a pistol, the other with a cowhide, but no assault was made—except with the tongue.

The last storm was the severest we have had during the winter, and appears to have raged with special fury between here and Diamond city. The prisoners from Diamond and their guard had a rough trip of it. All of them were more or less frost-bitten by the time they reached the Spokane House, the driver of the stage being the worst off, he having the tip of his nose and both cheeks frost-bitten.

JAPANESE CONCESSIONS TO TRADE—THEIR WILLINGNESS TO LEARN.—The following is from the Kanagawa correspondence of the San Francisco Times:

It is most gratifying to those interested in the development of trade with this country to notice the gradual relaxation of hereditary laws and customs in favor of the most enlightened views of foreigners, brought about since the port was first opened by Commodore Perry, in 1859. No people in the same space of time have ever submitted so heartily to innovations of foreigners as the Japanese, and all who have had experience with the people will coincide in the assertion that no race appeared more willing to embrace new ideas when intelligently explained, although diametrically opposed to former traditions, than the people of Japan. Not like the Chinese, who maintain a stolid indifference to effects manifestly advantageous, the Japanese at once concede the superiority of the foreign teacher, and with the simplicity and confidence of a child, receive instruction, and in the spirit of an anxious student, note everything to be pondered and studied over and over again, until convinced and the knowledge is acquired. There is not a day passes but a Japanese will interrupt you in the middle of your purchase at his store, and, with a book and pen in hand, politely request an explanation of some foreign word or sentence he has been unable to comprehend, and the result is that the Japanese are rapidly acquiring a knowledge of our language and increasing the sale of Webster's Primers.

To an American, who as long back as 1858 wrote and directed attention of the California merchants to the importance of trade with Japan to San Francisco, a country whose whereabouts on the map of the world was as hard to place as the Island of Guam to some of the present day, and whose departure was noticed in the Alta as of one of her sons removing to an isle believed to be a myth, the present condition of the people, trade and commerce is indeed one of gratitude—at least, Japan has become appreciated and a mutual interchange of commodities has been beneficial to the world at large. As changes have occurred in the country, vexatious laws annulled, and a desire manifested to make Japan felt as one of the rising powers of the world, she receives the hand of fellowship and friendliness from all the treaty powers, and it will not be many years before the Flag of the Sun will be seen in every country teaching progress to every nation, instead of being taught and led as at present.

THE "SUPREME COURT" OF ALABAMA ON CONFEDERATE INVESTMENTS.—A Montgomery correspondent of the Washington Chronicle says:

Thinking you would like to know, as well as your thousands of readers, how charmingly "my policy" of reconstructing this rebel State operates, I will instance the fact that the Supreme Court of this State, as now reconstructed, has decided substantially:

First—The existence of the State of Alabama was not destroyed by secession, and the military and political events which followed it.

Second—The government of the State during the war was at least a de facto government, though not acting in harmony with the Constitution and Government of the United States, and all acts under authority of the legislation of such de facto government before the surrender, so far as they were executed, are valid.

Third—The validity of such acts does not depend upon the conformity of the law to the Constitution of the United States.

Fourth—Guardians who have investments in Confederate bonds and received Confederate treasury notes under the authority of the act of November 9, 1861, in good faith, are entitled to credits on account thereof.

So you will discover from this solemn decision, made by the three men who now occupy the Supreme Court bench of this Andrew Johnson reconstructed State (two of whom were colonels in rebel regiments), that Alabama could revolt and join a grand mob in resistance to the laws of the land, and at the same time be a de facto government, and the acts done by this mob be all right: all legal—though widows and helpless orphans are plundered by their guardians by putting their pittances in the great hotchpotch of rebellion.

MONEY ORDER POSTOFFICES.—The following is the full list of the additional money order post offices established on this coast by the Postoffice Department:

California—Auburn, Benicia, Camptonville, Chico, Columbia, Colusa, Downieville, Dutch Flat, Eureka, Folsom City, Forest Hill, Georgetown, Gibsonville, Gilroy, Grass Valley, Healdsburg, Ione Valley, Jackson, Laporte, Mariposa, Markleeville, Martinez, Mokelumne Hill, Monterey, Napa City, Oakland, Oroville, Petaluma, Placerville, Red Bluff, San Rafael, Santa Cruz, Santa Rosa, Shasta, Suisun City, Susanville, Vacaville Valley, Visalia, Watsonville, Weaverville, Wilmington and Yreka.

Idaho Territory—Boise City, Idaho City and Ruby City.
Montana Territory—Helena and Virginia City.
Oregon—Albany, Auburn, Canyon City, Corvallis, Dallas, Eugene City, Jacksonville, Lafayette, La Grande, Oregon City, Roseburg, Salem, The Dalles and Umatilla.
Washington Territory—Olympia, Steilacoom City, Vancouver and Walla Walla.

THE OLDEST PERSON OF MODERN TIMES.—The Richmond Whig publishes this paragraph:

Caroline James, a colored woman, died in this city, on the 15th instant, at the advanced age of 130 years. She was only once married, and leaves thirty-five children. She was formerly a slave of Mr Benjamin Pilcher.

STATE ITEMS.

A Convention of Good Templars was recently held in Roseburg. The attendance was quite large. Six lodges have been organized in the county (Douglas) and others will be organized soon.

The State Journal says Patrick Henry Mulkey—the individual who was held for some time in military confinement at Fort Vancouver for uttering treasonable language in the street in this city something over two years ago—has instituted suit against Maj. Rhinehart, Capt. Applegate, Lieut. Larrison and others for the sum of $10,000—the amount of damage he claims to have sustained through his imprisonment to his character, reputation, and business as the direct result of the action of these officers in causing his arrest. Messrs. Walton, Gorman, and Ellsworth have been employed as attorneys for the prosecution, and Underwood & Dorris for the defense.

EVIDENCE OF THRIFT.—The freedmen of Tennessee, under the protection of the loyal government of that State are fast becoming independent of the aid afforded by the Bureau. The Nashville Press and Times says:

The slavocracy have always predicted that the freedmen would prove a thriftless set, who could never be induced to lay up a dollar for a rainy day. Though apparently better posted as to the negro's character and habits as might naturally be expected from long association with the slave race, the slave owner has shown himself on all occasions lamentably deficient in a knowledge of his former servants' disposition and traits, and events have invariably falsified the predictions made concerning the freedmen. Leaving bondage poverty persecuted on account of their color, suffering constantly from the impositions made possible by their enforced ignorance, and struggling upwards against unnatural obstacles, they have borne their lot with a patience not shown by the children of Israel, for they have never hankered for the flesh pots of Egypt. Inured to labor, they have as a class, gone manfully to work and have already created a surplus for themselves which places them on a higher round of the ladder than they occupied one year ago. The deposits in the Freedmen's Savings Bank in this city, for the month ending January 26th, was $7 516 91, or an increase over the preceding month of $1 040 99, the deposits for December having been $3 775 92. Since the organization of the bank, October 20th 1865, fifteen months ago, the aggregate deposits have been $62 924 64. Yet some people will even yet be found to prate of the freedmen's want of thrift and of his incapacity to take care of himself.

At a wedding in Raleigh, N. C., a few evenings since, the invited guests, after the ceremony, were requested to pay ten dollars each to the bride, who was in such indigent circumstances that she had not the means to complete her wardrobe. Each person present promptly responded, and the sum raised amounted to about $500. The bride thanked her friends for their generosity, kissed them all, and went home with her husband in the best of spirits.

RACE!—There will be an international boatrace at the Paris Exposition between crews of our American and English Universities, in which our American boys will certainly prove that they have equal strength with the oar as with the sword. KOHN & FISHEL have always proved theirs to be the cheapest clothing house in the State, and now, as well as heretofore, will convince the public that they are prepared to sell cheaper than the cheapest in the State of Oregon, and give better and more fashionable goods than any other house in this city for less money.

KOHN & FISHEL are now selling at their store, No 111 Front street, the best Davis & Jones' WHITE SHIRTS for $2, fine UNDERSHIRTS and DRAWERS, from $1 to $1 50; good, French PANTS for $5, fine cassimere BUSINESS SUITS from $20 to $25; fine cassimere BUSINESS and FROCK COATS from $10 to $15, finest black, DRESS SUITS for $30, and all other goods at proportionate low prices.

NEW ARRANGEMENT.—THE OLD BUCHTEL & CARDWELL PHOTOGRAPH GALLERY 89 First Street, has passed into the hands of JOSEPH BUCHTEL, Proprietor and Operator, who, having just returned from San Francisco, with ALL THE LATE IMPROVEMENTS, is prepared to take every style of picture known to the art.

A VALUABLE INVENTION.

THE UNDERSIGNED CALLS THE ATTENTION of smokers to the celebrated

PATENT DOUBLE-TUBE PIPES

Which he is now importing, and which are recommended to all smokers. Its peculiar merit consists in the use of TWO TUBES, the one for the smoke alone and the other for the passage of the saliva and the nicotine to the cup at the bottom, whence it is discharged. The smoke being thus kept clear of contact with the saliva, is always delicious and pure in its odor, and the collected matter which renders all other pipes offensive being entirely removed, the pipe will always continue sweet and agreeable. It gives to the smoke the pure exhalation of the tobacco, free from its noxious nicotine; it possesses merits never before obtained in pipes.

A leading eastern journal says of this pipe. "Its merits are incontestably proved by the fact that it is permanently superceding all others in use."

Another great advantage in this pipe is that the smoker can easily take it to pieces. If the draught becomes obstructed you can withdraw the stem and re-open the upper tube of the bowl without emptying it of tobacco.

REFINING WORKS,

CAPITAL STOCK, $1,000,000!

Directors:

JOHN PARROTT, CHAS. E. McLANE,
WM. C. RALSTON, A. HAYWARD,
LOUIS A. CARNETT.

LOUIS A. CARNETT............President and Manager.
JOHN HEWSTON, JR.........Chemist and Superintendent.

THIS COMPANY HAVING GREATLY enlarged their Refining Works, and introduced many other important improvements, are pleased to announce that they feel warranted in again reducing materially their terms of doing business.

THE TARIFF OF CHARGES

Which they now submit to the public—considered with reference to the cost of material and labor—is lower than in any other part of the world, and secures to the mining interest of this coast an important increase in both the minting and commercial value of bullion.

Their charges hereafter will be as follows:

FOR ASSAYING DEPOSITS FOR UNPARTED GOLD BARS.

One-eighth of one per cent (heretofore a quarter) for all amounts over $1,600, and two dollars for any smaller sum. Returns made in twenty-four hours.

FOR ASSAYING DEPOSITS FOR UNPARTED SILVER BARS

Two dollars for the gold contained, up to $1,600, and one-eighth of one per cent, for all amounts over that sum, and one per cent on the silver contained. Returns made in twenty-four hours.

FOR REFINING DEPOSITS MADE FOR COIN OR FINE BARS.

On bullion under 300 parts gold, 2 cents per ounce.

On bullion from 300½@600 parts gold, 4 cents per ounce.

On bullion from 600½@750 parts gold, 6 cents per ounce.

On bullion from 750½@910½ parts gold, 8 cents per ounce.

Above 950 the only charge will be for coinage. But there will be no charge for refining less than two dollars.

FOR COINING GOLD.

This charge will be the same as at the Mint—a half of one per cent.—and will be paid by us to that institution. But there will be no charge in future for making fine gold or silver bars from bullion refined by us.

RETURNS IN COIN IN FORTY-EIGHT HOURS.

Silver contained in deposits for coin will be accounted for at the same rate customary at the Mint.

Gold bars of other Assayers, in good standing, will be cashed by us at the highest market rates.

Dust and bullion can be forwarded to us from any part of the country, and returns made through Wells, Fargo & Co's Express.

CHARGES AT U S BRANCH MINT

For the convenience of those not familiar with the terms of the Mint, we subjoin the tariff of charges now in force at that institution.

For refining bullion under 300 parts gold, 3 cents per ounce.

For refining bullion from 300½@600 parts gold, 5 cents per ounce.

For refining bullion from 600½@750 parts gold, 7 cents per ounce.

For refining bullion from 750½@850 parts gold, 11 cents per ounce.

For refining bullion from 850½@949½ parts gold, 14 cents per ounce.

The charge for coinage is half of one per cent., and the charge for making fine silver bars, the same.

Comparing the net value of deposits for coinage, with the proceeds of unparted gold bars sold in the market—assuming that the bars have cost ½ of one per cent.—they must be sold at the following par rates to equal the return which would have been made had they been deposited for coinage.

865 par to equal Mint return, at refining charge of 14 cents.

865 par to equal San Francisco A. & R. Works return, at refining charge of 8 cents.

A DOUBLE RUNAWAY.—Mr Porter who came in from the Taylor's Ferry road last evening states that two buggy teams ran away on the McAdamized road during the afternoon, doing some damage to the buggies and their occupants. One of the teams came to grief before reaching the toll gate at the Fulton House injuring the carriage considerably The other team passed the toll gate and the Fulton House without a driver and took up the Boone's Ferry road When near the top of the hill the horses ran into an old log and broke loose from the buggy which received but little injury The frightened horses went on for some distance, till finally one of the horses ran into a deep rut and was heavily thrown The other ran for about two miles beyond the Fulton House and stopped. Mr Porter pursued, and brought them back to the city. He heard at the Fulton House that one of the occupants of the buggies was severely hurt and one or two others slightly injured We learned none of the names.

THE PIONEER BASE BALL CLUB.—In response to our note of yesterday in relation to the Base Ball Club of this city, Mr. Minor, the President of the Club, informs us that they have been awaiting the return of one of the members who has been in New York during the last six months and who was the delegate of the Pioneer Club to the National Convention at New York in December last He is expected to bring with him the latest established rules, and it was thought not best to open the season till his arrival. He is expected to arrive by the steamer Continental. During the coming week the Club will be re-organized for the year 1867. Mr Minor authorizes us to request all the members of the Club to meet this (Friday) afternoon at half past three o clock, at the grounds on the east side of the river, for practice The Oregon City Club has already been out once or twice It is in contemplation to organize a club at Salem where there are a number of very good players The Pioneers will have to look to their laurels and the sooner they get their hands in again the better

THE SUNKEN BRIG TO BE RAISED.—An arrangement has been effected by Messrs. Nestor & Price, with Mr Mercer, to raise the sunken brig, Duc de Lorges Mr Mercer intends to try the submarine hydraulic process for clearing her of the sand and drift, and for that purpose he has secured the use of No 2's steam fire engine and hose and the city's submarine armor The latter has been for some days down at the mouth of the Willamette, but was brought up last evening Mr Mercer intends going about the job to-day, should the armor come up Otherwise, he will not commence before Monday The con[illegible]al new use of fire hose will be an interesting experiment, and should it succeed it will be, practically, a [illegible] test of the principle of Mr Pike's invention, noticed in the OREGONIAN a day or two since

SALE OF AN OLD SHIP.—The owner of the old packet ship Sylvia de Gras, sunk at Astoria, has recently disposed of her to Mr. A. S. Mercer, who intends to get her out on the beach for the purpose of saving her timbers and knees. The ship was sunk in 1849 by running upon [illegible] rock in the middle of the channel and breaking her. As she lies now, the rock is nearly ten feet high in her hull, and it has held her fast, for eighteen years against floods, winds and tides. She was a large packet ship, of over 2,000 tons burthen, built of live oak and locust timber, had formerly sailed between New York and Havre, and was about twelve years old Recent examinations prove that her locust knees and oak timbers are as sound as the day they were put into her.

THE DISTRIBUTION OF ROAD MONEY.—Mr. Coulson, County Clerk, informed us yesterday that the petition of which we made mention, does not accurately represent the facts as to the distribution of road money in this county. While the petition does not say in words that the money has been distributed unjustly among the roads, it does convey the impression that some of the roads have got more than their due share Mr. Coulson says that the distribution was made in strict accordance with the law. If then, any road has not received as much money as its importance would seem to demand, it is the fault of the law and not of the County Judge and Commissioners They had the law for their guide and could have made no other distribution had they been so disposed.

TOBACCO AND CIGAR BRANDS.—We stepped into J. Schon[illegible] Co.'s establishment, corner of Washington and First streets, yesterday, and while talking with Mr [illegible], the resident partner here, casually noticed the various brands now in use for cigars and tobacco. Just think, ye chewers and smokers, of such names as "Dew Drop," "Golden Peach," "Standard," "Grape," "Hey Jo," "La Favorita," "Solace," "Henry Clay," "[illegible]," etc , etc , to console yourselves with. The firm have now on hand about 500 boxes assorted cigars and 2,000 lbs. smoking tobacco, besides cigars of all the [illegible] brands and pipes of the most curious patterns. They also keep every kind of toy and fancy goods

GERMAN DEBATE.—The Portland Literary Society "Germania" has made an arrangement for a prize debate on the evening of next Sunday. The question for discussion is as follows.

"Resolved, That commerce has done more to promote civilization among the Nations than the invention of the art of printing"

Rev. Dr. Schwab, and Messrs Schlessinger, Walter and Kapus are the disputants—two on each side The one who shall be adjudged to have made the best argument, will be presented a prize hat—one of Mensdorffer's fine silks. Aside from the interest felt in the disposal of the prize, this approaching debate is creating quite a stir among the Germans, members and outsiders

ERRATA IN THE "ARMY AND NAVY GAZETTE."—Lieutenant J. H. Gallager, of the 32d U S. Infantry, who arrived in this city yesterday, desires us to correct one or two errors in a paragraph which this paper of the 26th inst., copied from the Army and Navy Gazette of February 2d. That paragraph makes the Lieutenant's name "I H Gallagher," instead of J. H. Gallager, and states that he was relieved at Ft. Lapwai by Lieut McGilvra. He was relieved by Capt. C. H Lester, Co E, 8th U. S. Inf'ry. The errors were those of the Gazette, and not ours.

THE FRUIT MARKET IN SAN FRANCISCO —The San Francisco Times of the 22d, the day the steamer sailed, quotes Oregon fruit at retail as follows Apples—Spitzenberg, $3 00@3 25 per box, R. I Greening, $2 50@2 75, Rox. Russet, $2 00@2 50; W W Pearmain, $2 00@2 50; Newton Pippin $2 00@2 50, Swaar, $2 25@2 50; Ortley Pippin, $2 25@2 75, Vandevere Pippin, $2 00@2 50; R C. THE IDAHO.—The steamship Idaho arrived at the mouth of the Willamette river Wednesday evening and got fast on the bar. The Fannie Troup brought up her passengers, and returning, took out enough freight to enable her to float over the bar. Yesterday morning she came up as far as Swan Island bar, where she stuck fast again The Troup and Okanagan were engaged during a part of the day in relieving her of freight, and it was thought to be certain she would get off at high tide last midnight.

GEN. STEELE.—Maj.-Gen. Frederick Steele, commanding the Department of the Columbia, has received a telegram from Maj -Gen. Halleck, commanding the Department of the Pacific, requiring his immediate departure for San Francisco He is called as a witness before the [illegible] Military Board, of which Gen McDowell is [illegible], now sitting in that city. The General will leave on the next outgoing steamer.

AUCTION SALE OF FURNITURE.—To-day at ten o'clock A. M., Mr. A. B. Richardson will sell on the premises, Third st., between Main and Madison, a lot of desirable furniture, consisting of an elegant rosewood sett [illegible] and oak pieces, fine and costly carpets, bedding, glassware, kitchen furniture, etc., etc. The sale will [illegible] a complete housekeeping outfit, and will afford an excellent opportunity to buyers in that line.

GOING BACK TO YAMHILL.—Mr W L Adams, late Collector at Astoria, arrived in this city a day or two since with his family and household furniture, on their way to their old home in Yamhill county Mr Adams, having laid down the cares of office, seems very cheerful at the prospect of again becoming a "plain farmer" His post-office address will hereafter be McMinnville

MURDERER ARRESTED.—George Cooper the murderer of [illegible] at Albany a few days since, was arrested at Oregon City Wednesday afternoon, by Marshal Ryan He had ridden into town on horseback, and was instantly recognized and nabbed. Mr. Ryan is thus the lucky winner of $500—reward offered for Cooper's capture He was taken to Albany yesterday

ANY DAY WILL DO US.—The Continental has been two or three times announced by telegraph to sail on various days and hours, from San Francisco for Portland. Her time of sailing as announced last evening, will be Saturday [illegible] next Any day will do us but we can't [illegible] her sailing day but once more this week

RECORDER'S COURT —In the Recorder's court, yesterday [illegible], the charge against Charles Starr, assault with intent to kill W. B. Hill, was examined, the trial con[illegible] the entire forenoon The defendant was held to answer to the charge in the Circuit Court. No bail was fixed, and the prisoner was sent back to jail

DEAD.—Mr Duval, whose leg was crushed by a falling tree, on the 11th, and who submitted to amputation of the limb on Saturday last, died in this city on Wednesday night He was terribly bruised from the hips down to where the leg was broken, and mortification ensued near the trunk, in spite of every effort of his physicians

The University
HOMESTEAD ASSOCIATION

THE LANDS OF THE ABOVE NAMED ASSOCIATION are situated in San Francisco and are eligibly and most desirably located adjoining the grounds purchased by the Presbyterian University Society, on which College buildings are to be at once erected The site is less than thirty minutes ride from Montgomery street; lying just west or back of the lands of the South San Francisco Homestead and Railroad Association and the Bay View Park, almost within a stone s throw of ST. MARY'S COLLEGE.

The tract will require little or no grading there being scarcely a single lot on which it would not be safe to build without any change of grade It commands a

Beautiful View of the Bay,

And its opposite shore and has a soil of extreme richness So great are the natural attractions of the spot that very many of the wealthy citizens of San Francisco have already purchased whole blocks in the same tract, and design building residences thereon

The Rev E Thomas, D D.,

Is President of the Association Foster L. Robinson formerly Vice President of the Sacramento Railroad Company is the Treasurer, and Thomas B Lewis formerly of Portland, Secretary

Four lots, 25x100 feet each, constitute a share, costing $315—paid in monthly installments of $10 each, after the first payment of $10 has been made

Maps and books giving full information of the workings of the Association can be obtained at the store of J L PARRISH & CO

HAS CONSTANTLY ON HAND GROUND AND ROASTED COFFEE, GREEN COFFEE of the best qualities CREAM OF TARTAR and SPICES of all sorts.

The undersigned, who has always enjoyed public confidence for the excellent quality of his Coffee, neglects nothing to justify the good name acquired by his productions, the sale of which daily increases The acknowledged superiority of his merchandise, which commands here and in the markets of the interior, a relatively higher price, excites the cupidity of some manufacturers, and every day he sees increasing the number of those who, by counterfeit or imitation of his mark seek to deceive the public, palming upon them their inferior productions for the genuine G VENARD CHARTRES COFFEE. This fraud can deceive nobody after a trial, but only adds to the favorable opinion of the consumers, the very flattering though unwilling testimony of the counterfeiters. Nevertheless, buyers should be forewarned, and placed on their guard against this practice

Our Parting Kick

Get out, Old Year, get out, get out!
And don't keep lingering here about,
We don't care whether you've got the gout,
Or what's the matter but just get out!
You stupid, sorrowful, sad old year
You maundering, mischievous, mad old year
O law, we're heartily glad, old year
To enjoy the kicking you out!

Your life's a chapter of griefs and woes,
You were always treading on people's toes
Till you set great nations at brutal blows
And gave their braves to the kites and crows.
You savage, slaughterous, sad old year
You mocking, murderous, mad old year
O law, we're heartily glad, old year
To enjoy the kicking you out

You prolonged the plague that destroyed the ox,
You dashed our ships on the grinding rocks,
You aimed at credit such cruel knocks
That on came panic with ruinous shocks
You spiteful, slanderous, sad old year,
You stumping, miserly, mad old year,
O law, we're heartily glad, old year,
To enjoy the kicking you out!

You stirred a quarrel of class and class
And when we thought we'd a chance to pass
A wise reform, you abused the mass,
And slangel the few, and it went to grass
You sulky, slanderous, sad old year
You mouthing, meddling, mad old year,
O law, we're heartily glad, old year
To enjoy the kicking you out

You flung fresh food in rebellion's jaws
You established Yankee and Fenian laws,
You frightened Erin and gave us cause
To suspend fair freedom's noblest laws
You base, bewildering, bad old year,
You mean, maligning, mad old year,
O law, we're heartily glad, old year,
To enjoy the kicking you out!

Come in, New Year, with your hopeful smile,
To end our ditty of blare and bile,
That mean old cuss was enough to rile
An angel's temper, but you'll strike Ile,
You nice, no humbugness, neat new year,
You smiling, saucy face, sweet new year,
Your look increases the treat, my dear,
Of kicking that old cad out!

NASBY.

MR. NASBY ASSISTS A FRIEND IN GEORGETOWN IN OBTAINING POSSESSION OF HIS PROPERTY—HOW THEY CIRCUMVENTED FOUR WHITE WOMEN AND EIGHTY NIGGER BABIES

Post Offis, Confederit X Roads,
(Wich is the Stait of Kentucky,)
February 2, 1867.

I hev jist returned from a campaign wich hez proved eminently successful, and for my services in wich, if I hed my just doose, His Egsselency, the President, wood raise the salary uv the offis wich I now hold The circumstances is suthin like these :

Ther wuz in Washington a young gentleman uv the old skool, whose name his innate modesty forbids me to menshun. It wuz his modesty, his retirin disposition wich procoored for me the proud distinkshun uv assistin at the biznis. Ez he remarked when I arrived in Washington in response to his invitashen, "Nasby, I've a d—d mean thing to do, and as I'm a Virginian, I want a Northern Demokrat to take the heft on't orf my shoulders. They've allus done it and they're used to it." This friend, for sich I am proud to call him, wuz origiually a clerk in the Paymaster's department under the Sainted Bookannan, and he held on for reasons uv his own, under the gorrilla Linkin, until the proper time arrived, when he throwd off all disgise and flew to Lee at Richmond, and served the balance uv the war ez major onto his staff My friend hed a form near Washington, wich owin to the facilities for money makin under the rain of Bookannan, he hed saved out uv two years salary. This property the Linkin Government, with the disgustin coopidity caraktéristic uv em, declared it abandoned, becoz a unconstitooshnelly raised army was between it and its owner, and seesed it fur Guvernment yoose; and to add insult to injury turned it over to a party uv wimin, mostly the wives uv Senators uv the unconstitooshnel Congres, who hed organized theirselves into an Assosiashun to reverse the decree of nachur and edikate naterally degraded children uv the suns uv Ham, wich is and must be allus servance unto ther brethren. Senator Trumbull's wife and the wife uv that hoary-headed skoffer at our instituashuns, Ben Wade, wuz the leedin spirits uv this impius movement, and they had absolootly gathered together suthin like 80 orphans, ez they called em, uv niggers who died at Arlinton Hites, and put em onto the farm uv my frend and employed teachers and sich, and wuz actilly tryin to ram larnin into em! Wuz ther ever such nonsense? Learnin for niggers! How many Democrats is there who hev good appetites without a particle uv it? Time rolled on (a biznis time hes follered with distinguished success for a great many years), and the war ended. The stars and bars went down, and our coz was a lost coz. My frend surrendered with Lee, and cum back to Washington He wuz reconstructed, and wuz in a angelik and lamb-like temper. He had failed, but he forgive them ez hed bin the coz uv his failyoor. He sherished no hard feelins agin anybody. He wuz in Washington on the nite uv the 22d of February, 1866, and wuz the loudest applauder uv the Presidont's speech. The next mornin he went to the President. "Let us," ses he, "bury the hatchet Let the era of good feelin be ushered in. I wuz a Confedrit. I am yit, but we failed. I am willin to be pacificated. Let bygones be bygones. I forgive you. Give me back my position in the Paymaster's department wich I used to hold, and let things be normel agin."

President Johnson graspt his hands and bust into teers He cood not give him back his posishun—and he wept becoz it was so—it wuz okkupied by a Northern supporter uv his policy wich had just returned from a protraktid residence in Kanady.

"Washington," sed Johnson, "is the true golden mean. Here extremes meet. I hev supporters who want offis from the extreme North and the extreme South. Wood, oh! wood I cood get em from the middle. Is there anything else I kin do for yoo?"

"Nothin," sed he, "nothin," and he turned sadly away.

Time continyood to roll. Reconstrukshen by means uv konsiliashun wuz progressin. President Johnson wuz pardnin the supporters uv the lost coz, and where that woodent konsiliate, he wuz a givin back ther confiscated property, and 'casionally, in extream cases, somebody else's. My frend herd uv this, and cum up from Richmond. Sed he to Johnson :

"My property," sed this frend uv mine, who wuz reconstructid, "is in the hands uv a associashun of wimmin, who permit its sacred soil to be contaminated by free nigger babies. There is 80 or 100 uv em, from the tender pickaniny who has just entered the vale uv teers, up to the gurl uv 12, who in 3 ears more wood, if things wus normal, be old enuff for market. Good I hev that property agin, I——"

"You shel," says Johnson, "yoo shel. Here is a pardon, and here is a order fur the restorashen uv your property. Shel 80 or a 100 niggers stand in the way uv consiliatin a errin brother? Heven forbid!" And my frend went out with a lite hart.

But alas! he wuz sumwhat trubled to git possession, so he sent for me, and I come. There wuz difficulties in our path. The wimmin hed possession of the place and wood not go They wuz obstinet. They kep the doors locked but I wuz ekal to the emergency. Gittin in a stable I hollered "fire!" My frend wuz at the door, and when the afflicted teachers, not comprehendin the strategy, rushed out, he slipt in, and dared them to assault him. I immejitly jined him, and possession wuz sekoored

Still they refused to vacate, but my frend displayed grate presence uv mind.

"It's cold," sez he.

"You bet!" ses I.

"Dost think of we shood take the winders out and the doors off their hinges, that these wimmin wood care about stayin, with the mercury in the thermometer cokettin with zero?"

"My dear sir!" sed I, struck with the boldness of the consepshen, "yoo hed a nasty job on hand, but reely wat need hed you for me?"

"Grate need. The very presence uv a Northern Dimocrat inspires me But, to biznis."

And we did it, and shure enuff, the wimmin, after stickin it out two nites, moved ther traps and the nigger children in quarters pervided fer em by that man uv Belial, General Howard, and we hed won. The property wuz ourn and another step wuz taken in the grate work uv consiliation.

But my frend wuz not satisfied He remembered that fur months his property had been defiled by the presence uv the s niggers, that his house hed sheltered em, and from his land they hed subsisted, and he felt that reparashun must be dun. The stigma must be washed orf, and accordingly he sood the managers uv the instituashen for use uv his place, laying the damages at $10,000. Troo, the wimen hed fixed up the property and it wuz in better shape than when he left it, but he wanted reparashun for injoory dun his feelins, and the opportoonity uv persekooten the wives uv two such Amalekites ez Trumbull and Wade wuz too good to be lost. How the soot wuz decided I know not, ez I left before it come orf.

For my trubble I took five uv the nigger children, wich I picked up at the Asylum, one girl nearly white, thirteen years old, and four boys. Ez yet they aint wuth much in Kentucky, ez our labor laws aint yet perfected, so I shel take em to Mississippi, and ez soon ez the bill passes layin taxes onto nigger orfans they will bring a good price, of the citizens don't, by extravagant killin uv mateor niggers, make too many orfans and overstock the market. However, there aint much danjer uv that, ez the labor laws hev bin so skillfully drawd ez to make the lives uv such uv em ez aint too obstreprous, almost ez valyooable ez they wuz when they wuz actilly slaves, and I dont know but more so Under this arrangement we dont hev to take care uv em when they are sick, and aint got no capital invested in em, and their wages amount to about the same ez it used to—their keepin All gether things hez a good and smiling aspect The Lord uv Japhet is favorin u

Fountain of Life!

THE

GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER!

IN EVERY PROGRESSIVE SCIENCE PERIODS ARrive when a new direction is imparted to its course through some discovery of new facts shedding a light which changes the whole aspect of the science The present is an epoch of this kind and this Great Remedy now offered to the public, in connection with the theory on which it is based is destined to effect an entire revolution in the treatment of the diseases of

by eradicating the disease entirely from the blood The FOUNTAIN OF LIFE is composed entirely of vegetable extracts, it contains no Mercury or other mineral substance

The Proprietor and Discoverer of this Sovereign Remedy CHALLENGES THE WORLD to furnish anything from the days of Esculapius down to the present time, in the arcana of Medical Science, which can vie with or excel the intrinsic properties of this Great Blood Purifier Its value has been tested with the happiest effect in the most obstinate cases of Scrofula, that baffled the skill of the most eminent physicians in the world No matter what form the dreadful disease of SCROFULA and KING S EVIL may have assumed it can in no way be more safely and certainly arrested in its progress than by HENLEY S GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER Thousands have been swept into their graves, who had they made a timely use of the FOUNTAIN OF LIFE, might now be enjoying the blessings of life and health It requires an article of real merit and intrinsic value to sustain itself During the stern ordeal of public experiment the FOUNTAIN OF LIFE has stood the test trial, and not been found wanting

☞ Dr HENLEY guarantees to CURE any case of SCROFULA or KING'S EVIL in the world and eradicate the disease entirely from the system, or no charge made —provided they will secure him his pay when they are cured

FOR REFERENCE

I would refer you to L L Peck, of Portland Oregon, and numbers of others, as to what a miraculous effect it had in a short time, in cases that had baffled the skill of physicians for years

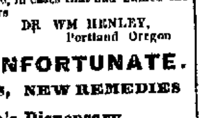
TO THE UNFORTUNATE.

NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES

Dr. Gibbon's Dispensary,



616 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhoea, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc. Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgences, or from virus absorbed into the system! Look at their pallid, emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken-down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene Let parents, guardians, friends, attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible life-destroying maladies see that they are cared for and cured before it be too late Send them immediately to Doctor Gibbon, a physician who has made private disease his especial study for years, and who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs It is important to those who are afflicted, or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities, publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emission, the consequence of self-abuse. This solitary vice, or depraved sexual indulgence, is practised by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing, with unerring certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by scientific medical measures, viz Sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, a disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, feted breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats, monomania and frequent insanity. If relief be not obtained, should apply immediately, either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr G will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible, and will give to each patient a written instrument, binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure, or make no charge.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME, by addressing a letter to Doctor Gibbon, stating case, symptoms, length of time the disease has continued, and have medicines promptly forwarded, free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country, with full and plain directions for use, for Ten Dollars, sent in registered letter or through Wells, Fargo & Co.
